

Please free XM to do even more broadcasting than they do now! I travel for a living and use the instant traffic and weather all the time. There are often no local stations around to give me just what I need to stay informed, especially on accidents and traffic jams. XM radis is a life-saver. Please don't be pressured by special interest groups. Thank you!